

MEET & GREET WITH...

...PropTech Thought Leaders

“Featuring leading voices in real estate investment, AI-powered construction, and global PropTech venture capital, the event will explore how innovation is accelerating growth, transforming real-estate assets, and unlocking new opportunities worldwide.”

Diego BONAVENTURA – Head of Digital Economy, Princely Government of Monaco.

Jesse WITKOSKI
Founder & CEO | UPPER ECHELON

Jesse Witkowski is the Founder of DFX, a next-generation private capital platform built for real estate professionals operating in an increasingly complex macro environment. A published author on artificial intelligence and its impact on global economic systems, he brings a macro-driven perspective to how capital flows, risk, and opportunity are reshaped by technology, demographics, and market cycles.

DFX is an AI-native operating system designed to help real estate investors, sponsors, and lenders source better deals, underwrite with greater clarity, and raise capital more efficiently across the full investment lifecycle. By combining institutional-grade analytics with intelligent market signals and relationship intelligence, DFX gives real estate professionals a decisive edge in navigating today's rapidly evolving private capital landscape.

Ahmed MAHIL ANA
Founder | LUYTEN 3D

LUYTEN

Ahmed Mahil is not just a founder — he is a disruptor in construction technology, blending engineering expertise with bold entrepreneurial vision. As Founder, CEO & Global President of LUYTEN 3D, Ahmed leads a team rewriting the rules of how the world builds. Under his leadership, LUYTEN has evolved from an audacious startup into a global benchmark for sustainable, rapid, and cost-efficient construction. Based in Melbourne with a global outlook, Ahmed champions a future where structures rise faster, cleaner, and smarter — from Australia's outback to international universities and even potential extraterrestrial environments.

LUYTEN 3D is a global leader in AI-powered 3D concrete printing, delivering patented printers and proprietary materials that significantly reduce construction time, costs, and waste. From affordable housing to advanced research facilities, LUYTEN enables construction at unprecedented speed and sustainability.

Miguel NIGORRA
Partner & Head of Europe | FIFTH WALL

Miguel Nigorra is Partner & Head of Europe at Fifth Wall, the world's largest venture capital firm dedicated to real estate technology. He leads Fifth Wall's European investment strategy, driving portfolio growth and connecting high-potential startups with leading real estate operators and global capital.

Miguel spent nine years at McKinsey & Company advising on large-scale real estate and digital transformation projects. He previously worked at Fon Wireless, Diageo, and Coca-Cola, and holds an MBA from Columbia Business School.

Fifth Wall, founded in 2016, is a leading venture capital firm investing in real estate technology companies reshaping how people build, buy, manage, and operate the built environment. The firm manages multi-billion-dollar funds and focuses primarily on Series A–C investments across proptech, climate tech for buildings, digital marketplaces, and productivity-driven real estate solutions.

Jaime LUQUE
PhD – Professor of Real Estate | ESCP

Jaime Luque, PhD, is a Full Professor of Real Estate Professor and Director of the Real Estate Institute at ESCP Business School, where he works at the intersection of real estate finance, technology, and public policy. He holds the Government of Monaco's Real Estate Tech Chair and serves as Housing Board Advisor for the European Commission. Professor Luque is a recipient of the Aspen Institute's award in the United States for his contributions to real estate education. His work appears in leading academic journals and is widely cited in international media.

ESCP Business School, a grande école founded in Paris and spanning campuses in Paris, Berlin, London, Madrid, Turin, and Warsaw, is the world's oldest business school, established in 1819. It consistently ranks among Europe's best, placing 4th of 90 in the 2023 Financial Times 'European Business Schools' ranking. This achievement further strengthens ESCP's status as a premier institution, clearly highlighting its unwavering dedication to academic rigor, impactful thought leadership, and excellence and innovation in global business education.
